

Kaleidoscope Center Donates $5,000 to Make-A-Wish Orange County and Inland Empire

Mission Viejo, California, September 30, 2014 – As part of Kaleidoscope's on-going partnership and support of Make-A-Wish Orange County and the Inland Empire, center officials donated $5,000 to the charity today. The donation granted the wish of a three year old boy from Rancho Santa Margarita to visit Disney's Aulani Resort in Hawaii with his family.

The $5,000 was raised at two summer events that Kaleidoscope hosts annually, Wines and Wishes, an elegant evening of wine tasting under the stars that was held in July, and the center's Kaleido-Kids Carnival, a fun family event held in August. This is the fourth year Kaleidoscope has hosted these events, which in total, have raised $30,000 and have funded six wishes for children from Orange County and the Inland Empire.

"Kaleidoscope is committed to numerous charitable causes in the community, and we have a long-standing relationship with Make-A-Wish," said Lauran Roberson, marketing director for Sentinel Development, which manages and operates Kaleidoscope. "It's very fulfilling for all of us here at Kaleidoscope to know we are granting wishes and helping bring joy to these special children."
